

ORIENTATION WEEK

FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

Palacký University
Olomouc

What is the OW?

Orientation week programme is organised by the International Relations Office (IRO) and Erasmus Student Network (ESN). It introduces students to various services and system operation at Palacký University.

It is always preceding the official beginning of classes in each semester.

There are also practical information sessions to instruct incoming students how academic issues at Palacký University are organized, what documents to fill out and use, who the university coordinators are and where to find them, how to get a university ID, a pass for public transportation etc.
